CONDITIONS OF SPEECH & DRAMA TUITION 2013

1. LESSONS

Students are required to attend all the regularly scheduled speech & drama lessons punctually, with all necessary books as appropriate.

2. LESSON TIMES

Lessons times must be recorded to ensure students bring materials and tutor books to scheduled lessons. These weekly lesson dates and times should be transferred to the student's School Diary, the family calendar and any other place to assist students to remember lesson times and dates. Posted timetables should be consulted regularly through the week for changes. Timetables of lessons for the whole term are posted near studios where students have their lessons at Kew and Donvale. A rotating timetable is applied wherever possible ensuring that students do not miss the same subjects in consecutive weeks.

3. ABSENCES

Please give as much advance notice on absences as possible by phoning the teacher 9816 1373, or at Donvale 9842 2166 or by contacting the teacher concerned by email. Please do this in addition to ringing the student absence phone number. Lessons missed by students, without sufficient notice, will be counted as given. Lessons missed with sufficient advance notice will be made up, as will lessons missed because of school excursions and sport events notified in advance in the school calendar, newsletters or bulletins.

4. PRACTICE

This must be regular and consistent to take full benefit of the tuition. The teaching staff asks for parental support in setting up and maintaining an effective practice schedule. The student's School Diary should be used to assist in this.

5. TUITION

This is expected to be for the full academic year. The tuition fees cover 32 lessons.

6. ASSESSMENTS

Students in the speech and drama tuition program will be formally assessed as part of the program toward the end of the year. There will also be informal assessments halfway through the year and at other times as determined by the teacher. Teachers may also invite students to enrol in external practical examinations and eisteddfods. End of year performance examinations are compulsory for students involved in this tuition program in Year 7 and above.

7. CHANGE OF LESSON TYPE

Where the lesson type is changed from that originally indicated on the Enrolment Form; for example from shared to individual, an authorisation in writing is required from parent/guardian before the change can take place. Please address requests to the Head of Performing Arts. Forms are available from the Drama Department on request, alternatively they may be found in Pathways@Carey. The subsequent change in billing will date from approval of the change.

8. DISCONTINUANCE

Teachers are engaged on a long term basis and require adequate notice in writing, when lessons are no longer required. A full term's fee in lieu of notice will be charged unless at least eight (8) weeks notice is given to the Head of Performing Arts in writing.

2013 FEES PER STUDENT
